Musings from the Gavel

Greetings RMTC members!

Our April RMTC General Meeting was well attended and a hearty thanks to all! As I mentioned, I do not believe that we have had so many members in attendance since we had Christophe as a speaker at the Blue Bonnet well over a year ago. Perhaps the quarterly meeting mindset is working. We shall see.

The British have always had their mascots, be they dogs, cats, or birds. We Americans have followed suit. Needless to say, "walkies" have not involved cats and birds for obvious reasons. While out and about with Siobhan today (pronounced Shi' von, ancient Celtic Hebrew for "God is gracious") I allowed my mind to wander. While dog walking one can simply close many tabs in one's head and open new tabs. So today, I started to imagine about automotive design. What was it like fifty years ago when the majority of our cars had already been designed or were in the process there of?

The various Triumphs were already on the road: Heralds, TR 3's, 4's, 5's (over there), 250's, and TR6's here, 2000's and 2500's Mk 1's and 2's followed by TR7's and 8's. Can you imagine the public out cry with the wedge shaped 7's and 8's with the slogan of "the shape to come"? To those "wedges" add in the Rover SD series! The mid 70's must have been startling to the British public let alone to the rest of the world. By then, of course, the Japanese had made incredible inroads into the US market while our domestic market fell into what has widely become known as the great malaise of the '80's. Triumph disappeared, MG wheezed its way into the very early '80's, Jaguar was present but...

So how does dog walking have anything to do with this? When one walks his dog along the boulevards, cars pass by. What does one see? SUV's and pick ups. Period. One might see the occasional crotch rocket, Subaru, or Honda with a "fart can" (so called muffler with a 3-4" exhaust tip). All very different scenery from when most of us were university students or just graduated fifty years ago. I graduated from UC Irvine in December, 1974. In SoCal at the time, TR6's and MGB's were the coin of the real hence my fascination with the exhaust note of a TR6. I thought to myself, one day I'll have a TR6 if for no other reason than top down motoring and the sound of that manly exhaust! And so I do. Times two! A TR6 and a 2000 Mk2. Sure, in retrospect there are/were better cars on the market but sometimes one has to go with the heart not the head.

What provoked all the above? I still am a member of the BMW owners club having recently had a 325i sedan. A marvelous sedan in its own right, surely, twenty years newer than my 2000 Mk2 (not Jaguar, Ted an inside joke) a far better car in every way but now gone. I received the recent publication from the BMW owners club and to see what is on offer from BMW is nauseating. I suspect that I am anchored in the past when real automotive styling meant something different, when sports cars and sedans had flair and elan. Doesn't seem to be the case any more. It seems modern designers are fixated on some sort of gaping grille, completely "in one's face" draped over a two ton plus barge replete with every sort of nanny device. Can you imagine a two ton TR4? And some might ask, "is this automotive progress?"

Happy motoring as we head into the summer of fun!

Cheers,

Richard

Request to post a classified ad on the RMTC website

Good morning, I am a new member to the RMTC and could use some help. I am working on a TR4 project and the tub has a few rusted areas I need to repair. I would like to place a classified ad on the RMTC website to see if someone has a bench top sheet metal break or a sheet metal bead roller they would be willing to sell, loan, or rent. I live in Twin Lakes (between Leadville and Buena Vista) and am happy to drive to the front range to pick up the tools.

I also have a 71 TR6 project that could use a new bonnet and boot lid but that is another story.

Rolling running partially disassembled project. Not drivable. Fresh oil change, engine runs well, Piranha ignition. All new front suspension bushings and powder coated wishbones, cross tube, and sway bar. Tub has minimal surficial rust, fenders and hood need work. Originally Sienna, repainted white. Comes with complete lightly used tan carpet and all panels, seat foam, new diaphragms, and covers. Solid walnut dash in excellent condition, all gauges work, good glass. Additional parts including second set of tail lights, left and right chassis strengthening kits. Missing exhaust pipe and muffler, soft top, windshield washer tank and pump, and misc. small parts. Located in Twin Lakes, additional photos available. Reluctantly letting this go to focus on my TR4 project. Dave (480) 225-2308.

RMTC General Meeting Wednesday, April 19th at the New York Deli News

The meeting was held at the New York Deli News, our usual spot now. A side note, Piccalo's, where we and other clubs met for many years, has closed after 50 years, details are unknown. Around 25 members attended this evening, along with two guests from Crested Butte, guests of Les and Betsy Stern.

PM Richard Martin opened the meeting at 7:06 PM with a few remarks, then another guest, Alan Magnuson from the MG Club and the Conclave Committee, provided details on a number of upcoming events. The annual Glenwood Rallye will be the weekend of June 9th, and attendance with any type of vehicle is encouraged. So it would be fun to see your 1953 Desoto Station Wagon or your EV there if you are looking for an excuse to blow the dust off after winter hibernation, details at <https://mgcc.org/>. Alan also mentioned the MG & Triumph 100 Centennial event at the Silverstone GP Circuit in England, June 10 - 11, if you happen to be in England those dates. There will be something for everyone at MG & Triumph 100, The racing will take place on the full Silverstone GP Circuit and feature both MG and Triumph marques in competition plus special guests. Details at <https://www.mgtriumph100.co.uk/>
Alan mentioned dates for the Scottish Festival, August 5, the Colorado Grand during the week of August 4, and Conclave in September.

Jeff Heller reported that club finances are in order, that there have been 27 membership renewals so far this year, and 3 new members. (Reporting for Kitty, who is recovering from some sniffles.) Jeff has also been sending the email blasts for event reminders and other news, if you are not getting those blasts, please contact Jeff Heller. Andrew Janiesch reported that the Spring Car Show will again be held at Lil Ricci's in Golden on May 6th from 9:30 am to 1:30 pm.

Sharon and Kitty said that they have had about 8 Ladies RSVP for the June 3 tea, so it is uncertain at this date whether that is enough for the degree of effort this fun event takes. Please RSVP ASAP if you want to attend.

Terry Hughes reports that around 9 people have contacted him about the Black Hills / South Dakota drive in August. Please contact Terry if you would like to join this drive.

Chuck Woodward, Regalia officer, brought a nice display of RMTC shirts and hats and jackets for sale, at our cost.

These include some V-Neck shirts for women. Chuck also ran the 50/50 raffle during the meeting break, Mike McGuire won the $27. Mike provided an update for the June ACCC charity event, 18 Triumphs have registered, Mike is hoping for 26 cars. The theme this year is Evolution of the Automobile, which will be a special category, so you can also spiff up the old Studebaker for this show.

It was good to see Marla Otto attend, also an update about Shirley Kenney, who has moved to a retirement community from the Foxfield house where the Kenney's hosted many RMTC events over the years.

LOOKING FOR A VOLUNTEER

Your RMTC will be hosting it's 2023 Holiday Party at the Stonegate Clubhouse again this year. The date is Saturday, December 9th between 5 pm and 10:30 pm. David and Arlene Bosh have served as Hosts last year but are not available this year. As a result your Board is looking for a volunteer(s) to serve as Hosts. You will be responsible for food ordering, collection of dinner fees, arranging for desserts and appetizers members bring, providing utensils and dinner setup and final cleanup. It is not a difficult job but does require a clear and organized approach. It is however, highly rewarding watching everyone enjoying the festivities. If you would like to be the Holiday Party Host, please contact David Bosh for detailed information.

A hearty turn out for the RMTC General meeting! Guest speaker Alan Magnuson shown with PM Richard Martin presiding.

Minutes from CCCC Meeting April 5, 2023

Meeting was held at the Colorado Springs Falcon Police Station starting at 7:35 allow for any late arrivals due to the snowy weather.

Leo Boyle did not attend so we did not get a legislative report.

Minutes were accepted for the March meeting.

Treasurer Budget report was accepted, which included Federal taxes paid in the amount of $1,388 and Colo State taxes paid in the amount of $274.00

Dick Thompson spoke at length about the CCCC Car Show and swap meet at Rocky Mtn Metro Airport on August 5th: Viet Nam Helicopters will be showing their copter; there will be a large tent (20x20) that will have tables and chairs for attendees to use for eating food and to get out of the sun; the car show will have advertising on two radio stations ; The Colorado State patrol will have four vintage cars attending; there will be a display of vintage motorcycles; Also a display of vintage campers.

The next discussion had to do with the Concours d' Elegance on June 4th. Dick stated that he will not be contacting clubs to encourage participation in the Evolution of the Automobile portion of the show. Instead, Tom Scott of Concours d' Elegance will be contacting the CCCC representative for each club to ask for people to bring their cars to the Evolution of the Automobile. The First Vice President, 2nd Vice President and a couple of club representatives brought up that most likely they would not have club members participating due to the high cost of admission, $50 per car, and that there would be no judging or awards for the participating cars. The consensus was that the club cars would gain nothing for their time and appearance and it would cost them $50 to bring a car. Next on the list was the CCCC being the featured club for April at Gateway Classic Cars, 14150 Grasslands Dr, unit A, Englewood, CO. The show date is April 29th at 8:00 am. Coffee and donuts will be served to the drivers of the cars. CCCC receives $10 for each car that attends, up to 20 cars maximum for the pay out. There is no limit on how many cars can represent the CCCC. So, this is a good donation to the club coffers.

Gary Canady who has been organizing the Dust and Shine events at the Forney Museum, is no longer doing this due to health issues. Forney is looking for a new person to take over for Gary. This is a volunteer position. Also, for Forney, they will be featuring vintage firetrucks with the help of the Hook & Ladder Club.

The Lincoln Technical College is holding their annual show on May 6th in their parking lots from 9am to 4pm. Dick is needing a couple more volunteers to help Calvin and Samantha hand out flyers at the show for our own Car Show & Swap Meet on Aug 5th.

It was brought up in the meeting that the Wall Street Journal had an article about the Rambler Ranch out in Kiowa, with a very positive review.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:15 since all business had been covered and none of the attendees wanted to discuss anything else so they could get out and head home in the snowstorm that was going on in Colorado Springs.

General meeting photos show a civil yet merry crowd. New York Deli News delivers the goods and hosts our club board meetings as well.

The Club has a Member of the Year program. There is a sign-in book at every Club -sponsored event, drive and meeting.
